One Result of the War.

A delightful old lady of a little town in Nebraska was discovered one morning in the act of killing a chicken.

"Why, Mrs. Brown, I thought that you were afraid to kill a chicken," said a neighbor in surprise.

"Yes, dearie, I did waster be; but since the war broke out I've done it right smart."

"Well, you see, it's this way: I uster think that bloodshed was an awful thing, but since I've been readin' about all them men-killin' in Europe I just get a rooster by the feet, lay his head on the block and say to myself: 'Now, Sarah, 'tain't near so bad as killin' a man. Where's your nerve?' And then I just shut my eyes and whack."—Youth's Companion.

Protest Seen in Reply to Note.

El Paso, Tex.—Carranza's reply to the last American note will deal mainly with the old protest against the presence of American troops in Mexico territory, according to a telegram from Mexico City, published in the El Paso Del Norte, a local Carranza organ. The dispatch says a number of persons close to the government say that the note will take for granted Secretary of State Lansing's assertion that the American government desires neither war nor intervention. It will devote itself to the punitive expedition.

ULTIMATUM IS SENT MEXICAN REPUBLIC

Immediate Release of Captured Negro Troopers Demanded.

CARRANZA ORDERED ATTACK

President, Following Conference, Indicates He Will Address Joint Session of Congress Soon.

Washington, D. C.—A demand for the immediate release of the American troopers taken prisoners at Carrizal, coupled with a stern notification that the United States expects an early statement of the purposes of the Carranza government was telegraphed to Mexico City Sunday by Secretary Lansing.

The note discloses that the State department received Saturday a communication from the de facto government stating that the Carrizal fight was the direct result of orders to attack American soldiers moving otherwise than toward the border, personally issued by General Carranza to General Trevino and by the latter communicated to General Pershing.

In reply, Secretary Lansing requires that the de facto government transmit a definite statement "as to the course of action it has determined upon through the usual diplomatic channels and not through subordinate military officers."

The Mexican communication is construed, Secretary Lansing states, "as a formal avowal of deliberately hostile action against the forces of the United States now in Mexico and of the purpose of attack without provocation whenever they move from their present position" despite the friendly mission on which they are engaged and which is reaffirmed in the American rejoinder.

General Carranza is required to place himself on record formally and the plain intimation lies behind the restrained language of Mr. Lansing's communication that force will be met with force. Apparently, however, the Washington government is determined that the de facto government shall not evade responsibility before the world if war is forced upon the United States.

The note and the military situation of the United States were talked over at the White House by the President, with the senate foreign relations committee.

After the conference, which lasted more than an hour, Senator Stone said the situation was "exceedingly acute." President Wilson has felt it necessary to acquaint congress with the state of affairs and the action taken, through the foreign affairs committee. It was indicated that he might desire to address a joint session of the house and senate in a day or two, but would not take this final step until the Mexican government had been given an opportunity to reply.

Thirty-Three United States Troopers Known To Have Been Slain

Field Headquarters, Mexico, via wireless to Columbus, N. M.—Twenty-three American soldiers are known to have lost their lives on the battlefield at Carrizal, according to a report to General Pershing Sunday night from Major Jenkins, commanding the Eleventh Cavalry column ordered to scour the country in that vicinity for survivors. Major Jenkins said he had evidence that nine American troopers, in addition to those previously reported dead, had been killed. Major Jenkins reported that he had found Captain Murphy hidden in a house nine miles from where he was abandoned, and that his wounds were not dangerous.

WOMAN AVOIDS OPERATION

Medicine Which Made Surgeon's Work Unnecessary.

Astoria, N. Y.—"For two years I was feeling ill and took all kinds of tonics. I was getting worse every day. I had chills, my head would ache, I was always tired. I could not walk straight because of the pain in my back and I had pains in my stomach. I went to a doctor and he said I must go under an operation, but I did not go. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and told my husband about it. I said 'I know nothing will help me but I will try this.' I found myself improving from the very first bottle, and in two weeks time I was able to sit down and eat a hearty breakfast with my husband, which I had not done for two years. I am now in the best of health and did not have the operation."—Mrs. JOHN A. KOENIG, 562 Flushing Avenue, Astoria, N. Y.

Every one dreads the surgeon's knife and the operating table. Sometimes nothing else will do; but many times doctors say they are necessary when they are not. Letter after letter comes to the Pinkham Laboratory, telling how operations were advised and were not performed; or if performed, did no good, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was used and good health followed.

To Suit All Tastes.

The following conversation was overheard in a railway train not long ago:

Just as the train was moving from the station two men were bundled into a carriage. Both were of the sporting type and were evidently particularly keen on racing.

"Let's have a look at yer paper, Bill," said Charlie.

"Ere we are, Charlie," said Bill, handing his friend an evening paper.

After a few minutes of silence Charlie remarked sentimentally: "Wonderful things, newspapers, aren't they, Bill? They've got so many different sorts of things in 'em—stories, cookery, murders, suicides, racin'—some thin' for everybody, in fact."

"You're right they are, Charlie."

"But what's this 'ere blank space, Bill?" pointing to the blank space reserved for stop-press news.

"Oh," replied Bill, "that's for people who can't read."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

War Cuts Phone List.

There are at least 10,000 fewer telephones in London as a result of the war, business firms in hundreds of instances discontinuing the service in the interest of retrenchment. The government, which operates the system, announces that although telephones have been discontinued by the wholesale there has been an increase in the use of electrophones—the instrument which connects the subscriber with the theater and enables people who prefer to remain indoors these gloomy nights of black streets to have amusement brought to their firesides.

Totem Poles Must Don Some Clothes.

Clothes make the totem pole, according to John Oscar Davis, collector of the port, at San Francisco.

Horried at what he saw when a Burmese specimen consigned to the Rev. J. H. Esst of Portland was uncovered at the customhouse early in February, Collector Davis has now recovered sufficiently from the shock to announce that when the proper habiliments have been placed on the relic it may be allowed to proceed on its way to the indignat consignee.

Painting, the collector said, had been considered, but clothing would be better. His plan now is to arrange for a proper covering of the mooted totem pole at the expense of Doctor East and that then the curio, decorously accoutered for appearance among the most select circles, might be allowed admission to the land of the free and the home of the brave.

In Right Place.

"I have written a poem on—"

The editor looked up wearily. The blue eyed blonde young woman was merciful.

"I have written a poem on 'The Old Red Barn on the Farm,' and—"

The weary look disappeared from the editor's face.

"Ah! Delighted! Written on the old red barn, eh? Fine! I'll be going along by the farm in a day or so, and I'll stop at the old red barn and read it!"

His Register.

"Well, landlord, how's business nowadays?"

"Oh, purty good, purty good. Had a whole passel of people register yist'day. They were five gentlemen, three ladies and four musicians."

Wind Imprisons Woman.

Imprisoned in a closet by the wind slamming a door fast, Mrs. Mollie Cordery, who lives near Bridgeville, Del., had a narrow escape from death, and when discovered was nearly overcome by the shock.

Mrs. Cordery was cleaning the attic and while she was looking in an old closet a gust of wind slammed the door and locked it from the outside. There was no one but herself in the house, and it was nearly an hour before Mrs. Cordery's screams happened to be heard by a gang of men who were repairing the road. With all the doors locked downstairs, Harry Rickards climbed to the second floor and got through by a window. When Mrs. Cordery was found she was in a pitiable state. She is still seriously ill from the shock.

Are You Past 30 Years? Take Hot Water and "Anuric."

People are realizing more and more every day that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Under this continual and perpetual action they are apt to congest, and then trouble starts. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, drowsy and many other serious disturbances. Doctor Pierce's Anuric Tablets are the only remedy that every one should drink plenty of pure water between meals. Every day should exercise in the outdoor air sufficiently to sweat profusely, and from time to time stimulate the kidney action by means of "Anuric." This preparation has been thoroughly tried out at his Sanitarium, in the same way as his "Favorite Prescription" for weak women and "Golden Medical Discovery," the standard herbal system tonic (both of which now come in tablet form for convenience of carrying and taking). "Anuric" is now being introduced here, and many local people are daily testifying to its perfection.

When you have backache, dizzy spells or rheumatism, heed nature's warning. It means that you are a victim to uric acid poisoning. Then ask your druggist for "Anuric" and you will very soon become one of the hundreds who daily give their thankful indorsement to this powerful remedy to uric acid.

If you have that tired, worn-out feeling, backache, rheumatism, neuralgia, or if your sleep is disturbed by too frequent urination, get Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets at drug store, full treatment $1.00, or send 10c. for trial package to Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y.

Totem Poles Must Don Some Clothes.

Clothes make the totem pole, according to John Oscar Davis, collector of the port, at San Francisco.

Horried at what he saw when a Burmese specimen consigned to the Rev. J. H. Esst of Portland was uncovered at the customhouse early in February, Collector Davis has now recovered sufficiently from the shock to announce that when the proper habiliments have been placed on the relic it may be allowed to proceed on its way to the indignat consignee.

Painting, the collector said, had been considered, but clothing would be better. His plan now is to arrange for a proper covering of the mooted totem pole at the expense of Doctor East and that then the curio, decorously accoutered for appearance among the most select circles, might be allowed admission to the land of the free and the home of the brave.

In Right Place.

"I have written a poem on—"

The editor looked up wearily. The blue eyed blonde young woman was merciful.

"I have written a poem on 'The Old Red Barn on the Farm,' and—"

The weary look disappeared from the editor's face.

"Ah! Delighted! Written on the old red barn, eh? Fine! I'll be going along by the farm in a day or so, and I'll stop at the old red barn and read it!"

His Register.

"Well, landlord, how's business nowadays?"

"Oh, purty good, purty good. Had a whole passel of people register yist'day. They were five gentlemen, three ladies and four musicians."
